Your Opinion Matters

As a public organization, we are always interested in your opinion of the level of service that we provide. In order to better understand our strengths and weaknesses, we have created and distributed this survey which touches on the major aspects of the Harrison Police Department.

It is our sincere hope that you will choose to use your voice and help us serve you better. Please understand that all responses are completely anonymous. When you complete the survey, simply fold the form so that our address is visible, and mail or drop off at any City building or at the Police Headquarters.

Thank you,

Charles R. Lindsey
